

Icelandic Ski Association

National Head Coach - Alpine

---

The Icelandic Ski Association (SKÍ) seeks a Head Coach for its alpine national teams for the 2019-2020 season.

The Head Coach is responsible for leading, coaching, developing and administer all aspects of both the men's and women's alpine program. The employment is on an annual basis and is a part time position of approximately a 45%. However, the employment could get more extensive as the program for SKÍ evolves and changes. The position is vacant from May 1st 2019.

Responsibilities

- Oversee coaching for the alpine national teams.
- Manage and plan training camps and trips to competitions on behalf of SKÍ.
- Communicating effectively with all members of the national teams.
- Cooperate with SKÍ's education committee on seminars for coaches.

Qualifications and educational requirements

- Coaching experience of elite alpine athletes.
- Education with in alpine coaching.
- University degree in sports is preferred.
- Very good abilities in human relations.
- Fluent English. Preferable some German skills.
- Ability to work independently and take initiative.

SKÍ is searching for an individual who is passionate about alpine racing, is capable of independent work and has very good communication skills.

The Icelandic Ski Association works within The National Olympic and Sports Association of Iceland.

Applications shall be submitted by email to: ski@ski.is, marked "Head Coach" before April 26th 2019.

For more information please contact Mr. Jón Viðar Þorvaldsson, secretary general of SKÍ, tel: +354-6604752 and, e-mail: ski@ski.is.