

Are you up for an adventure?

Job for a Ski coach in Iceland

An Icelandic ski club, SKIS, is searching for a ski coach for the upcoming ski season.

The skiing team consists of about 40 kids at the age of 6-15. The ski area is located in Stafdalur, between the two small towns of Fljótsdalshérað and Seyðisfjörður in the east part of Iceland. The ski area has two lifts and a beginner's area.

The trainings are in in the afternoon weekdays and early on Sundays. There will be great opportunities to travel around and visit other ski areas in Iceland during competitions and training weekends.

The training season starts in the beginning of January and ends in the end of April.

The club will help the coach with housing, additional work, travelling and other things needed. Salary by agreement.

For application and further information contact Hgrún Hjálmarsdóttir, litluskogar12@simnet.is or tel +354 665 6527.